

Secondary data exercise

1. What secondary data should be collected for our project?
2. What secondary data you would collect relating to consumer, company, competitors, and condition?
3. What are the valuable information that you find out from this secondary data collection